Whole Life Script

This is [Your Name] with the Life Insurance Department on a recorded line. Are you calling for life insurance or final expense coverage?

Pause

- If yes/quote: Great! I can help you find the most affordable monthly payments. Is that okay? If yes: continue with #1

- If caller asks about $25K or benefits: We have plans available with coverage amounts up to $25,000 depending on age and health. There is a monthly payment. Would you like to go over your options?

- If caller asks about $2/day: Yes, this is final expense coverage. Some plans can start as low as about $2 per day depending on age and health. Let me ask a few quick questions to see what you qualify for.

- If caller asks if we're a specific carrier: That's one of the carriers we work with. Were you looking into life insurance or final expense coverage today?

- If customer service: You've reached the new business department. Were you looking to purchase new life insurance or add coverage?
  [If CS, disconnect. Provide the carrier's phone number if it's handy then disconnect]

- If caller says free: Sorry, we don't offer free coverage. Have a great day. hang up

1. Okay, and are we purchasing the insurance for yourself or a loved one?
2. Perfect. What is [your/their] resident state and date of birth?

   Identify the caller's needs within 90 seconds - DO NOT HANG UP ON VALID LEADS!!!

3. Please spell your first and last name. [re-confirm the spelling]

Once again, my name is [Your Name], and I'm a licensed agent in [client's resident state], and I'll be taking care of you today!

1. Is this the best call back number in case we're disconnected?

2. And are you able to receive text messages to that number?
3. Great. What is your approximate height and weight?
4. And do you use any nicotine or tobacco products?

Do you currently have existing life insurance or final expense coverage?

- If no: Okay. It sounds like getting coverage is very important to you. That way, God forbid something happens, your loved ones won't have to come out of pocket to cover your expenses. Does that sound about right?
- If yes: Okay. Were you looking to add on some additional coverage?

    If replacing: Which company are you with? How much coverage do you have and what are you paying? When did your policy go into effect?

Okay, got it.

1. Are you single or married?
2. Are you currently working or retired?
3. Do you receive social security or disability?
4. Okay, and which state were you born in?
5. Okay, and most insurance companies offer lower rates if you use a bank or credit union. Do you have a valid bank account or credit union?
    - If no bank: No worries, what payment method do you use to pay your bills?
6. Okay, got it. Now, legally, I do need to ask, do you have anyone acting on your behalf, such as a payee or Power of Attorney, or do you make all of your decisions on your own?

Perfect, thank you for that information.

Now, the way these plans work is that there's no medical exam or blood work required. I'll just ask you a few basic health questions to determine eligibility, is that okay?

Great. Before I continue with those questions, I need to disclose that all of your personal and health information is protected under HIPAA privacy laws, okay?

- If unsure about HIPAA: HIPAA privacy laws ensure that your personal and health information stays protected and confidential. Does that make sense?

Pause

Okay, great!

1. Are you currently hospitalized, in a nursing home, psychiatric or correctional facility?
2. Are you receiving or been advised to receive home health care or hospice care?
3. Do you use a wheelchair or mobility scooter, or require assistance with daily activities?

Okay, these next few will also be a yes or no.

Have you been diagnosed or treated for any of the following conditions:

1. Lung disease, asthma, or COPD?
   If yes: Are you currently using inhalers or oxygen?
2. Heart attack, stroke, blood clot?
   If yes: Which condition(s) and when were you diagnosed?
3. Artery disease, congestive heart failure, or cardiomyopathy?
4. Cancer, leukemia, or lymphoma?
   If yes: What type, is it currently active, and when were you first diagnosed?
5. Are you diabetic?
   If yes: Are you currently on daily insulin treatment?
6. Any diabetic complications such as neuropathy, retinopathy, or amputations?
7. Kidney or liver conditions?
8. Anxiety, depression, or schizophrenia?
9. Dementia, Alzheimer's, or treatment for memory loss?
10. Alcohol or drug abuse?
11. Organ or tissue transplants, lupus, or tested positive for HIV or AIDS?
12. In the past 5 years, have you had any felonies, DUIs, or had your driver's license suspended or revoked?
13. Have you been hospitalized for two or more consecutive nights in the past 12 months?
    If yes: What was the reason for hospitalization?
14. And lastly, are you currently taking any prescription medications?
    If yes: What are they prescribed for?

Okay, great. Thank you for that information.

Now, these are state-approved plans designed to cover 100% of burials, cremations, or any other final expenses your loved ones could incur. These policies pay out within one day of notification, so they're designed to take the burden off of them, so they're not coming out of pocket or dealing with the financial stress of covering those costs when that time comes. Okay?

Now, [Client Name], obviously tomorrow isn't promised for any of us. I'm sure you can imagine that at some point, we'll all pass away — and when that time comes, are you planning on a burial or a cremation?

- If burial: Okay got it. So having at least $10,000 — $20,000 to cover the burial costs and service is what we're looking for, correct?
- If cremation: Okay got it. So having at least $7,000 — $15,000 to cover the cremation costs and service is what we're looking for, correct?
- If undecided*:* No worries, I understand. Most people are undecided. I'm asking to ensure you have adequate coverage regardless of the option you choose. Does that make sense?

Now, if God forbid you were to pass away tomorrow, who would you want to list as your beneficiary to receive your policy benefit? [if the client doesn't mention the full name, ask]
If multiple beneficiaries: And how did we want the benefit split between them?

These questions are designed to deepen the conversation and uncover the client's needs. There's no need to ask every question in one call—just choose the ones that naturally fit the flow.

1. "Why is protecting [him/her/them] important to you?"
2. "What would [his/her/their] situation look like if you didn't have coverage in place?"
3. "Would they have the funds to cover your final expenses when that time comes?"
4. "When do you feel is the best time to put this protection in place?"
5. "How do you think they would feel knowing you've already taken care of this with coverage in place?"
6. "And how do you think they would feel about you if something did happen, and you could have had this coverage in place but didn't?"

Pause [to allow the client time to reflect and respond to each question you ask, be sympathetic and respond with "I understand" after their responses]

Okay, got it. Now I'll quickly highlight a few of your benefits and then we will go over rates and coverage options.

1. This is a whole life policy, do you know what that is?
    - If yes: Great! As you know, this policy will be with you for the rest of your life. It doesn't expire regardless of age, and your monthly payments will stay locked in, so you won't have to worry about your premiums increasing or the benefits decreasing. Your coverage and payments are guaranteed.
    - If no: No worries! A whole life policy will be with you for the rest of your life. It doesn't expire regardless of age, and your monthly payments will stay locked in, so you won't have to worry about your premiums increasing or the benefits decreasing. Your coverage and payments are guaranteed. Does that make sense?

2. And lastly is cash value [only if they ask about CV]
    - These policies generate cash value that is fully tax-free and can be accessed in case of emergencies, such as chronic illness or disease. The carrier puts a portion of your monthly payment into savings, where it earns interest. You'll have the option to withdraw from the cash value after two years.

Does that all make sense?
Pause

Okay, great. Now, my goal is to get you the max coverage, but we want to make sure that your premium will be affordable and can be maintained on a monthly basis. What is your approximate monthly income? A rough estimate is fine.

Please grab a pen and paper. I'm working with the carriers to find the best fit for you, then we'll review rates and coverages so we can decide what works best. I'll give you a range of coverage amounts, and if you need more, just let me know and I'll adjust it.

Disclaimer: Keep premiums within 7—10% of their monthly income for affordability and persistency. Quote top down. Present all three coverage amounts first, then all three premiums top down.

Please write down:

GENERAL QUOTES:
Burial: [$25,000/$20,000/$15,000]
Cremation: [$20,000/$15,000/$10,000]

IF OLDER AND/OR VERY UNHEALTHY [EXPENSIVE RATES]:
Burial: [$15,000/$11,000/$7,000]
Cremation: [$10,000/$7,000/$5,000]

5 Second Pause

Now, if God forbid you were to pass away tomorrow, which coverage option would you feel comfortable with leaving behind for [beneficiary]?

Okay, got it!

1. What's your mailing address where you'd like your policy mailed?
2. And a good email address for you?
3. And which bank are we using for your monthly payments?
4. Is that checking or savings?
5. Okay, great. Go ahead and locate your checkbook or bank statement so we could verify the account and routing number.
6. Just to confirm I have the correct information:
   [verify the account #, routing #, checking/savings, and bank name with the client]

After today's initial payment, your future payments will be on the [today's date] of each month, okay?
If no: Which date of each month would you like your recurring payments drafted?

Okay, great! I've started working on your policy documents, and I'll be providing you with a policy number today. I'm also attaching your nine digit social to your policy. What is your nine digit social?
If Client DOES NOT provide SSN: Well, [Client Name], if God forbid anything happens to you and [beneficiary] didn't have the policy number, [he/she/they] can provide your social to the carrier to file a claim. Does that make sense?

Okay, perfect!

Again, my name is [Your Name], and I will be your agent for the life of your policy. If you ever have questions or need to make any changes, you can reach me directly at [your phone number].

I now have all the information needed to complete your application. Underwriting will take a few minutes to come back with an approval. Do you mind if I place you on a silent hold?

5—7 minute hold [continue checking on your client throughout the application process]

CLOSE OUT SCRIPT

Thank you again for your patience. Your application was approved!

The carrier that approved your coverage is [carrier] for a coverage amount of [face amount], and for a monthly payment of [premium]. Your coverage takes effect on [effective date], with recurring payments being drafted on the [recurring draft date] of each month. Your policy number is [policy number].

If your payment is drafted before you receive your policy paperwork, that is normal. Insurance companies do not send policy documents immediately. Once the first payment has been processed, your policy will be mailed and should arrive within 10 to 14 business days.

If your draft date has passed and the funds are still in your account, please leave them there. Payments can take up to 3 to 5 business days to fully process and reflect.

And lastly, if your situation changes and the monthly payment becomes unaffordable, call me right away and I can adjust coverage so you can keep protection in place. If other agents contact you, you can let them know you have already purchased coverage.

Thank you for trusting me with this. If you have any questions or need help with your policy, please don't hesitate to reach out. Is there anything else I can assist you with today?

LEGACY SAFEGUARD SCRIPT

Before we wrap up, I'm going to enroll you in a free benefit we include for our clients called Legacy Safeguard. It helps you and your family keep everything organized, like your estate planning details and final wishes, so nothing gets left unclear.

You'll also receive a membership card in the mail with my contact information on it, so your family knows exactly who to reach out to. You can keep it in your wallet or on your fridge at home so it's always easy to find. Again, there's no cost, it's an added benefit we include with your policy. Just bear with me for a moment while I get that set up, okay?
